

Satellite radio is a service I pay for, and I deserve to receive all of the benefits of it. Including weather, traffic, news, and unedited music. The United States promotes capitalism, public radio stations need to compete. Not whine to the government when a little competition appears. If you don't like satellite radio don't use it, don't ruin it for people who do.